Mr. Market by Benjamin Graham - csinvesting

Benjamin Graham was acutely aware of the role that human psychology plays in investing. Investing is a strange discipline, laying somewhere on the crossroad of social or cognitive psychology and corporate finance. While some economists still like to claim that people are rational number crunching machines, many in the fields of finance or economics are starting to wake up to actual human nature nature -- a nature well understood by most other disciplines since at least the time of the Greeks.
